

Ca'Leia Jolie Elise Nelson is a high school student and has been involved in many leadership roles. In her Jack and Jill Chapter of America Chapter, she has served as the Jr teen Parliamentarian, Jr Teen President, and Sr Teen Parliamentarian. She has won the Oratorical Speech contest twice in her chapter.

She was the Parliamentarian for her Future Business Leaders of American club in school. She was a member of the Junior varsity cheerleading squad at Dacula High School for two years. Ca'Leia is the President and co-founder of the M3 Youth Move Chapter and the Founder of Mini Minds Matter 501 c 3. The youngest Board member of Citizens Changing the Community, 501 c3, and the Youth Ambassador of the Federation of Families Chapter through that nonprofit.

In 2021 She opened her own online retail store Ca'Leia's Closet. In 2022 she was crowned Miss Dacula Sophomore. She is a Georgia Campaign for Adolescent Power & Potential member at the Youth Advisor Council Member. She is a youth member of the NAACP and has been a Girl Scout since she was Brownie. In 2022 she received a Proclamation from the House of Representatives for her community service work.

Her aspirations are to attend a university and study either English, journalism or business, graduate, and enlist in the Airforce. Upon completing her military time, she would like to go to Law school and remain in the air force reserve in their Jag unit. Where she can continue to serve her county as well as the community in which she resides.
